

Certificate of Undergraduate Study (CUGS) Digital Forensics

Program Information

The Certificate of Undergraduate Study (CUGS) in Digital Forensics is designed to offer students the opportunity of a specialized study to provide students with experience in key courses of this discipline at the undergraduate level. This CUGS prepares students to sit for the following certification exams:

- EC Council: Digital Forensics Essentials
- EnCASE Certified Examiner
- EC Council: ECIH – Certified Incident Hacker
- EC Council: CHFI – Certified Hacking Forensics Investigator

The Certificate of Undergraduate Study in Digital Forensics consists of 12 s.h.

Students seeking this CUGS are required to pass (grade of D- or better) the four courses below in the order they are listed:

Course Number	Course Name	Pre-Reqs	S.H.
CST 03252	Foundation of Computer Forensics	None	3
CST 03253	Applications for Digital Forensics	CST 03252	3
CST 03352	Digital Incident Handling	None	3
CST 03452	Advanced Digital Forensics Investigation	CST 03253	3